

Multiplication and Division application instructions:

Either press “space” or left click to generate new equations to solve.

Press “a” to change between showing and not showing the answers (showing generates a new equation every two clicks, not showing generates a new equation every click)

Press “L” to change between light and dark mode